Board of Education Members In Clear Field.

SCHOOL ELECTION GOSSIP

WILL BE OF NON-PARTISAN NATURE, AS USUAL.

So far as known there are no candidates so far as known there are no call and another the present incumbents in the board of education for the school election which comes off Dec. 5. It is not unlikely that the members whose terms expire this year will go in without oppo

TOM FITCH'S LETTER.

Epistle to Legislators Is Brief and Pointed.

announcing his candidacy for the senate before the incoming legislature, was brief and to the point. Mr. Fitch wasted time calling attention to his peculiar ness for the place. Neither did he menor has peculiar ness for the place. Neither did he menor the speeches he made during the last myaign. Each Republican member of a legislature received a missive of high the following is a copy: I expect to be candidate for United ates senator before the Republican legislative caucus, and I hope that you will did it within the line of your judgment id inclination to accord me your very duable support. Yours truly, "THOMAS FITCH." It is reported that other senatorial cannator have been waiting to see the Fitch

"THOMAS FITCH."

It is reported that other sematorial candidates have been waiting to see the Fitch etter in order that they might use it as a model for the epistles they are going to send out in their own behalf. Some of hem will probably make their documents onger but few will go straighter to the meat of the matter.

GLASMANN FOR SPEAKER.

Ogden Editor Is In Lead for the Place.

It is beginning to look as if the member of the lower house of the next legislature would have to address the "bald eagle of Weber county" as "Mr. Speaker." Bili would have to address the "bald eagle of Weber county" as "Mr. Speaker." Bill Glasmann seems to have the job nailed down, atthe agh several gentlemen are actively opt-osing him.

William was in Salt Lake the other day building his fences. He succeeded in corruling several votes in the Salt Lake county delegation. O. H. Hewlett announced last night that he would support the Ogden editor from start to finish. Mr. Hewlett thinks it is only right that Bill should get this reward for past services to the party.

"The senatorship will probably fall to Salt Lake." Mr. Hewlett went on. "and it is but tair that the speakership should go to Weber county." In addition Mr. Hewlett considers Mr. Glasmann eminently qualified to fill the position and give all sides a fair deal.

The most active opponents of Glasmann so far as known are W. G. Van Horn and Benner X. Smith, both ot Salt Lake. Mr. Van Horn is doing all he can to land the place. Mr. Smith, both ot salt Lake. Mr. Van Horn is doing all he can to land the place. Mr. Smith s friends are at work for him, but he has done nothing personally-so far.

SHOUP ON THE SENATORSHIP. Not Certain That He Will Be a Candidate.

Big Pluralities.

Word was passed around the joint building yesterday afternoon that the canvages of the Flfty-first district by the county commissioners showed a gain of 60 votes for M. S. Woolley, or sufficient to elect the Democratic candidate. Mr. Woolley did gain 60 votes, as compared with the tables compiled by The Herald's microning and afternoon contemporaries, but The Herald's figures were correct, and on the face of the canvass thus far Mr. Woolley is defeated by a very small mar-in.

Salt Lake Man Loses a Big Roll of Money in Ogden

(Special to The Herald.)

Ogden, Nov. 17.—E. M. Anderson of Salt
Lake reported to the police station tonight that he had been robbed of $670.
Anderson is a Scandinavian and gives his residence as Grape screet, Salt Lake, His story is that he came up from the capital
this morning with a view of locating here
and going into the restaurant business.
At the depot he met a friend from Aspen, Wyo. The two went over to a saloon and had a few drinks. They then separated,

WATER LOW IN RESERVOIR.—By reason of the fact that the A. B. Sawyer company on Thursday diverted to its feemaking ponds two-thirds of the flow of Parley's creek, as it has a right to deach season until March, the flow of water into the reservoir at the head of First South street has fallen to a minimum. However, there is ampie supply of water at normal pressure from City creek for fire protection and all other purposes.

The kitchen would require a in the proper description. There ing is lacking, from the marge, the patent dishwashe poses.

DIDN'T HAVE A QUORUM.—Only seven members of the council, one less than a quorum, assembled to answer roll call at the special meeting scheduled for last night. In spite of the lack of a quorum, President Buckle called the meeting to order and Chairman Roberts on of the finance committee read City Attorney Stephens' approval of the blank bond form submitted by Shepard & Co. The members present agreed to support the finance committee in any action it might take relative to having the bonds lithographed and proceeding with the sale. An adjournment until Tuesday night was then taken.

KALAMEIN PIPE ALL RIGHT.—Yesterdaz afternoon the committee on waterworks examined the kalamein pipe, of which there is 4.600 feet, six and eight inches in size, in City Creek canyon, which it is proposed to replace with a twelve-inch cast iron pipe under the Moran contract. The kalamein pipe water of the city, thus saving nearly $5,000 to the city if new pipe vere necessary for the laterals. The committee will report its findings to the council, together with a recommendation that no new pipe for laterals be ordered as the board of public works and Contractor Moran desired.

Suggested the name for Beardsley's Tavern for Salt Lake. Mr Beardsley states that it is his intention to cater to the very best people in this community, as well as to furnish good lunches and dinners for business people. A first-class lunch will be served for 35 cents; and a fine dinner for 50 cents; and no effort will be spared at any time to give perfect satisfaction.

The Tavern will be opened to the public for breakfast this morning. It may be found on East First South street in the Hooper building, where an old-fashioned, ironbound oak sign and two large iron lanterns will direct the wayfarer to the proper place. A visit

ROOMS WERE CHILLY.—The members of the board of education shivered last evening during the session because there was no heat in the building. Mr. Newman expressed the sentiment of all of his colleagues when he said it seemed strange that no provision was made for keeping up steam for either the city council meeting or for the county carry assing board. While no motion was made, there was an inquiry for the names of the members of the committee on control of the city and county building, for the purpose of giving the responsible ones a "jacking up."

BOOMS WERE CHILLY.—The members of the only one in Salt Lake), the complete bakery, the cold storage rooms, the gas, coal and coke heat, the cellar 165 feet long, and all the appliances that in these is the days go to make up a first-class it then in such an institution.
